PREFACE

We are extremely exhilarated to provide the leafy platform in the form a book for the dew like bright thoughts of budding researchers, experts and erudites for the thirsty readers. These pellucid and translucent thoughts will bring about humanized, moral and ethical changes among the readers. This book will certainly enlighten its readers and augment their interest in reading multidimensional and multidisciplinary approaches. Our college library often proves to be a land of germination of innovative ideas thereby to disseminate information and cultivate reading culture among its users. Being a life-blood of any institution, libraries play a vital role by providing apt information within no time to its users. Every year our college library with the help of ICT organizes many outstanding activities to reach out to as well as attract the readers. This time, on the occasion of Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam's birth Anniversary we come up with the idea of publishing this book focusing on the topics pertaining to Abdul Kalam , Reading culture and libraries. Kalam's Birth Anniversary is celebrated as Reading Motivation Day in the college libraries working under S.P. Pune University. Therefore, we have selected the theme 'Love of Books' i.e. 'love of reading books' for this book. Many scholars have contributed to this book with their brainstorming chapters that will strengthen the intellectual grip of readers. The contributors are from the states like Assam, Goa and Maharashtra. In Maharashtra, the scholars from Nagpur, Aurangabad, Pune, Kolhapur, Amravati etc. submitted their articles, chapters. The chapters throw light on the various issues and perspectives pertaining to 'reading' which is considered as a prominent activity to bring about

Introduction

"Pupils who are not able to read do not have the prerequisite skills for Successful learning in later grades"

-UNISCO

First day of life to up to age eight is the most crucial period for children's reading and writing development. During this period, children learn without difficulty and are ready to learn quickly. And Later on children learned with the support of family member and teachers. They are constructing the basis of their future education and success in life. Able to read and write early age is essential for numerous reasons. Children who able to read when they are childhood create the opportunity to read various books, newspapers, online material and develop in reading skills very well and knowledge. Children who able to write early age of life have the good opportunity to write stories, experiences and share own thoughts via texts on social media of in their dairy. Children, who know the alphabet and mulakshare, make practice of a lot of familiar words, can write their own names in their handwriting. It will give knowledge of reading in right direction. Children's can read words and have required knowledge before schooling. They have an advantage of it, that is, they are in a well position to succeed than those children who do not have these skills at this age. Early reading and writing knowledge among children can prevent school problems and failures as well as reduce the needs of special educational support. In order to develop, achieve goals in life and participate in society, individuals need to be able to read and understand written texts, according to the OECD. The positive effects of reading on later reading and literacy skills make a social interaction between well-educated adults and children. It inspires children to engage with the

Abstract:

Reading is one of the most vital methods of learning and understanding. Reading is associated with literacy, personal and civilizational development of Children. "Since 2008, a growing number of developing countries are assessing the reading skills of pupils in the early grades of primary school" (UNISCO). This is to indicate that, how important is this activity on personal development as well as on society as a whole, and any ignorance of this vital activity especially in the early ages means many learning problems. Primary reading and writing both skills are vital in order to development and succeed for the children, both in school and later on in life. The purpose of this study is to shed light on role of reading in personality development of children.
